BUR: Anthony (or Anton) Ling is buried on his former farm in Shade Twp._Somerset Co., Pa. along with his wife. They do not have headstones. _Anthony and his wife lived here, and then this part of his land became_his son's Christian's land. I do not believe that anyone will find him_buried in Bedford Co., Pa. (Christian and Philip actually lived on the_land as single men, before their father and mother moved there from_Bedford Co., Pa.) Source: The land deeds of Anthony Ling. (Christian got_land on one side of the Old Bedford Road 'where Anthony then lived', and Philip got the land on the other side of the road.)_This land with the cemetery eventually became the property of the Wagner_family. It is located close to John Stump, Sr.'s property and the first_Shade Church along the old Bedford Road that went through Shade Twp. and_is north of Buckstown, Pa. (I also grew up in Shade Twp.) Source:_Betty Jane Philpot, email bu philpot@juno.com (LIN HIS 052)

HIS:Immigration was about 1781 in an unknown ship at Baltimore, MD

(Ling records in Johnstown, Pa Library, but no original source given)

Anthony landed in Baltimore. The family resided first in Washington Co., MD near Hagerstown. They then moved to Bedford Twp., Bedford Co., PA about 6 miles north of Bedford (Dunning Creek area).

NOTES For ANTON LING: The family came to America about 1781. All indications from Mildred Ling Bechtol (a descendant of Anton's son John (Johannes) in Bedford County) research is that the family were Holland Dutch. The first indication of this was that her grandfather could not speak German. He spoke Dutch. Since then she has visited Holland and found Lings living in the eastern part and found that many of them were dairy farmers.

The family landed at Baltimore, MD. They resided for a time in Washington Co., Md. near Hagerstown, then moved to Bedford county, PA and settled in Bedford Township, about 6 miles north of Bedford in the area of Imlertown, PA, known as "Dutch Corners..They purchased land on Dunning's Creek. Anthony purchased land for Philip and Christian (two of his sons in Shade Twp. where the Ling cemetery is located. This is about a mile north and west of Buckstown, PA.)

HIS: Feb 1784. Mortgage. Anthony LING of Washington County, Maryland, yeoman, to Henry Walter of York Town in York County, Pa., merchant. A 150 acre tract in Bedford Twp, Bedford County, PA, on the waters of Dunnings Creek. Mortgage satisfied 16 Jan 1705 at which time Henry Walter, the mortgagee, is deceased. (page 61) from Calendar of Transactions, Bedford County, Deed Book B Register and Recorder's Office, Bedford County Courthouse from St Clairs Bedford, Vol. 12 # 4, Jan 1994. 974.871 H25s

Some other notes about this family: There is a village named "Kring" south of Johnstown. One of Anton and Elisabeth Ling's daughters married George Kring. Some of this information was written to Dr. E. C. Saylor of Berlin in 1933 by a Mrs. May Peterson of Windber. Mrs. Peterson's line was Anton - John - Christian - William. also it is probable that his daughter Margaret married a second time to a man named Jartsock. This source comes from information in Christian Ling's last will and testament. (Information from Mary Ling, email mal@shol.com (LIN HIS 050)

In 1796 Christian and brother Philip were assessed as tenants in Shade Township, Somerset, Pennsylvania. About the time these two boys became of age, they married sisters by the names of Menges who were residents of Somerset County. They began their married life in that county. Neither of them appear upon the records of Bedford County. Source: Stanton Ling Davis, historian.

CHILD NOTES: Jacob Ling

Birth (1782): I am assuming the birth was in Maryland as Anthony and family came over from Germany about 1781 and settled in Washington County, Maryland, until he purchased land in Feb 1784 in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. General: !BIR: Margaret Ling Boelke

CHILD NOTES: Doan Ling

Birth (about 1784): Anthony's father purchased land in Feb 1784 in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. There is a possibility that Doan was born in Maryland, but most of the year they were probably in Bedford county, Pennsylvania.
Death (1790): Doan disappeared in 1790 near Bedford. Source was Margaret Ling Boelke.
